Biggest Obstacle I Had to Overcome

- The obstacle that gave me the most difficulty, that I had to overcome, was finances.

I didn't understand them; didn't have respect for money.

- I was good at making money, but bad at hanging onto it.

I didn't know what to do for long-term, legacy, and proper investment.

- It was hard for me to go to financially successful people who hadn't achieved balance in life and let them help me.

- I had to find a mentor who had 10 years of financial success, 'fruit on his/her tree' and who invested personally in what he/she was selling.
- To seek mentorship and listen to people who knew money and understood finance, though they didn't understand some other things in life was something I had to overcome.
